

Time	AFRICA AUSTRALIA RESEARCH FORUM Tuesday 5 th September
08:30	Arrival, tea, coffee and registration
09:00	Welcome remarks Mr. Bill Repard , Chairman Paydirt Media & Prof. Andrew Taggart , Provost, Murdoch University
09:15	Keynote Address: The African Development Bank's vision for how the extractive industries will contribute to inclusive growth in Africa. Prof. Kevin Urama , Senior Advisor to the President on Inclusive and Green Growth African Development Bank Group
10:30	Morning Tea
11:00	Panel – Rendering to Caesar – How Royalty, Tax and Transparency in the extractive industries can contribute to inclusive growth Panelists include: Research Professor Pietro Guj , Centre for Exploration Targeting, University of Western Australia & Adjunct Professor in Mineral Economics, Graduate School of Business, Curtin University , Ms. Andrea Shaw , Transparency International Australia (TI Australia) , Mr. Farai Mutondoro , TI Zimbabwe , Ms. Leanne Govindsamy Corruption Watch (South Africa) and Ms. Jackie Were from TI Kenya .
12:30	Lunch
13:40	How education can harness the energy of youth and the power of women to make growth inclusive. Chair Dr. Rochelle Spencer , Murdoch University Panelists – Prof. Ebenezer Oduro Owusu , Vice Chancellor, University of Ghana (invited), Prof. Peter Mbethi , Vice Chancellor University of Nairobi, Mrs Dookun-Luchoomun , Minister for Tertiary Education, Human Resources and Scientific Research, Mauritius (invited)
14:50	Comfort break
15:00	Round Table discussion – Sustainable Development Goals, Extractive Industry & Inclusive Growth Based on discussion paper to be circulated in advance of the meeting exploring cross-walking the SDGs to the extractive industries – Outcome: What are the research questions that will enable society to better understand the role of extractives in creating (or inhibiting) growth that is inclusive?
14:10	Plenary reporting of group discussion
14:55	Closing Remarks David Doepel, Chair AARF
17:00	Africa Down Under Welcome Reception , lobby bar Pan Pacific Perth Hotel