

Australia-Africa Education Partnerships for Development

Prospects for partnering with the African Union

H. E. Mr Mark Sawers

Ambassador of Australia to Ethiopia, Central African Republic, Djibouti, South Sudan and the African Union

Topics to be covered

- “Education is of central importance to achieving the African Union’s Agenda 2063
- “Several important initiatives are being pursued under this rubric” particularly at the tertiary level/higher education
- AU leaders declared 2018-2027 the African Decade for Technical, Professional, Entrepreneurial Training and Youth Employment
- “Australia-Africa Education Partnerships for Development” - The practical implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals at the AU level and prospects for partnership

